Services

(a) The Agent will collect rent from the tenant and hold client money in accordance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

(b) Rent collected will be accounted for to the Landlord after deduction of authorised fees, expenses and other agreed payments.

(c) The Agent will normally pay the Landlord:

(d) [e.g. monthly, within X working days after rent has cleared]

into the bank account nominated by the Landlord.

Management Fee

The Landlord agrees to pay the Agent:

(a) _____ % of rent collected

or

(b) £_____ per month

The Agent is authorised to deduct its management fee from client money in accordance with this agreement.

Maintenance and Repairs

The Agent may arrange routine repairs up to:

(a) £_____ per individual repair

(b) without obtaining prior approval from the Landlord.

(c) For repairs above this amount, the Agent will normally obtain the Landlord's approval before proceeding, except where immediate action is reasonably necessary to protect the property, comply with a legal obligation, or protect the health and safety of occupants.

The Landlord remains responsible for the cost of authorised repairs.

Property Compliance

(a) The Landlord is responsible for ensuring that the property is legally suitable to let and for providing the Agent with required certificates and information.

(b) The Agent may assist with arranging inspections, certificates and compliance services where agreed.

(c) The Landlord authorises the Agent to notify them of compliance issues and recommend appropriate action.

Tenants

(a) The Agent may communicate with tenants on the Landlord's behalf regarding rent, repairs, inspections and general tenancy matters.

(b) Where agreed, the Agent may carry out tenant referencing and Right to Rent checks in accordance with applicable requirements.

Tenancy Deposits

(a) Where applicable, the Agent will deal with the tenancy deposit in accordance with the applicable tenancy deposit legislation and the deposit protection scheme being used.

Landlord Responsibilities

The Landlord agrees to:

- Provide accurate ownership and contact information.
- Provide all required property information and certificates.
- Maintain appropriate landlord/buildings insurance.
- Pay property-related costs when due.
- Pay for authorised repairs and maintenance.
- Inform the Agent of any relevant changes affecting the property.
- Comply with applicable landlord obligations.

Agent's Authority

(a) The Landlord authorises the Agent to act on the Landlord's behalf in relation to the services covered by this agreement.

(b) The Agent may communicate with tenants, contractors, utility providers and relevant authorities where reasonably necessary to provide the agreed services.

Client Money

(a) Money belonging to the Landlord or tenant will be treated as client money where applicable and handled in accordance with applicable legal requirements and the Agent's client-money procedures.

(b) The Agent will maintain records of money received and paid out on behalf of the Landlord.

Landlord Statements

(a) The Agent will provide the Landlord with regular statements showing, where applicable:

- Rent received.
- Management fees.
- Repairs and expenses.
- Other deductions.
- Payments made to the Landlord.
- Remaining balance.

Expenses

(a) The Landlord authorises the Agent to deduct agreed property-related expenses from funds held on the Landlord's behalf, where permitted under this agreement.

(b) Examples may include:

- Repairs.
- Contractor invoices.
- Compliance certificates.
- Locksmith costs.
- Emergency call-outs.

Ending the Agreement

Either party may terminate this agreement by giving:

(a) [e.g. one month's written notice]

(b) Any outstanding fees, expenses or sums due to the Agent remain payable following termination.

(c) The parties will cooperate to transfer the relevant property, tenancy and financial records following termination.

Client Money

(a) Money belonging to the Landlord or tenant will be treated as client money where applicable and handled in accordance with applicable legal requirements and the Agent's client-money procedures.

(b) The Agent will maintain records of money received and paid out on behalf of the Landlord.

Complaints

The Agent operates a written complaints procedure.
