1. GRANT OF LEASE

The Landlord grants to the Master Tenant, and the Master Tenant takes, a lease of the Property for the Term, with exclusive possession and the right to operate the Property and to sublet or license it to guests, occupiers and tenants on a short-stay, mid-term, corporate or longer basis, as the Master Tenant decides.

The Landlord acknowledges that the Master Tenant is the tenant under this Agreement and that guests and occupiers hold their rights only from the Master Tenant and have no direct rights against the Landlord.

2. TERM

The initial term of this Agreement is a minimum of two (2) years and up to five (5) years, as selected below (the “Term”):

Initial Term: ☐ 2 years ☐ 3 years ☐ 4 years ☐ 5 years

Commencement Date _____ Expiry Date _____

The Term may be renewed or extended for a further period by written agreement of both parties, with the renewal terms (including rent) agreed at least ninety (90) days before the Term ends. Neither party may end this Agreement before the end of the Term except as set out in clause 17.

3. GUARANTEED RENT

In return for the lease, the Master Tenant shall pay the Landlord a fixed guaranteed rent for each month of the Term, whether or not the Property is occupied:

Monthly Rent £ _____ GBP or US$ _____ USD or J$ _____ JMD

Payment Currency: ☐ GBP ☐ USD ☐ JMD

Rent Payment Day _____ Rent-free / set-up period (months) _____

Rent shall be paid by bank transfer to the account nominated by the Landlord in Schedule A. Rent shall be reviewed only on renewal, by written agreement. Where rent is quoted in more than one currency, the currency selected above is the currency of payment and the other figures are approximate equivalents only.

4. SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE MASTER TENANT

The Master Tenant shall, at its own cost, operate and manage the Property throughout the Term, including:

- Guest and occupier communication, bookings and calendar management
- Pricing and revenue optimisation
- Check-in and check-out coordination, cleaning, laundry and turnover
- Day-to-day running of operations using NOVOURQ's AI technology, including messaging, scheduling, pricing and reporting
- Routine property inspections and inventory management
- Key and access management
- Maintenance coordination, as set out in clause 5
- Monthly performance reporting to the Landlord

The Landlord shall be given access to the NOVOURQ landlord dashboard for the Term so that the Landlord can view bookings, income, maintenance and activity on the Property at any time.

5. MAINTENANCE AND DAMAGE

(a) The Master Tenant shall cover the cost of maintenance and repair of damage to the Property arising during the Term up to US$200 (two hundred United States dollars) per incident, and its in-house team shall handle those issues.

(b) Where the cost of a repair or maintenance issue is expected to exceed US$200, the Master Tenant shall inform the Landlord promptly, and the Landlord shall arrange and pay for the work, or approve it to be done by the Master Tenant at the Landlord's cost, within _____ working days of being contacted.

(c) In an emergency, or where immediate action is needed to protect the Property, guests or other people, or to prevent further damage, the Master Tenant may take reasonable steps without prior approval, shall notify the Landlord as soon as reasonably practicable, and the cost above US$200 shall be borne by the Landlord.

(d) The Landlord remains responsible, at the Landlord's own cost, for the structure of the Property, the roof, foundations, external walls, main plumbing, wiring and drainage, major building systems, and any defect or damage that is not caused by occupation during the Term.

(e) The Master Tenant is not responsible for fair wear and tear, or for the replacement of items at the end of their natural life.

6. UTILITIES AND PROPERTY COSTS

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the costs below shall be paid as follows:

Electricity, water, internet ☐ Master Tenant ☐ Landlord

Property tax, HOA / maintenance fees ☐ Master Tenant ☐ Landlord

Insurance (buildings) ☐ Landlord (always)

7. LANDLORD'S WARRANTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Landlord confirms and agrees that:

- the Landlord is the legal owner of the Property, or is otherwise entitled to grant this lease, and there is no restriction, covenant or third-party right that prevents it;
- any mortgagee, co-owner, strata or body corporate whose consent is needed has given it in writing;
- the Landlord shall maintain buildings insurance for the Property throughout the Term;
- the Landlord shall pay all taxes, charges and mortgage payments on the Property that are not the Master Tenant's responsibility;
- the Landlord shall provide accurate information and all certificates, permits and documents reasonably needed to operate the Property;
- the Landlord shall keep the Master Tenant informed of any change affecting the Property or the Landlord's ownership;
- the Property is and shall be legally suitable to be let and sublet for the uses in clause 1.

The Landlord shall not interfere with the Master Tenant's quiet enjoyment of the Property and shall not contact guests or occupiers directly.

8. FURNISHINGS AND CONTENTS

The Master Tenant may furnish and equip the Property at its own cost. Furnishings, equipment and contents supplied by the Master Tenant remain its property and may be removed at the end of the Term. Any contents belonging to the Landlord shall be listed in the inventory in Schedule B and returned in their original condition, subject to fair wear and tear.

9. ALTERATIONS

The Master Tenant shall not make structural alterations without the Landlord's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Cosmetic changes, decoration and the installation of smart-home, lock and access technology that can be removed without damage are permitted.

10. ACCESS BY THE LANDLORD

The Landlord may inspect the Property on giving at least forty-eight (48) hours' written notice, at a time that does not disturb guests or occupiers, and in emergencies with such notice as is practicable.

11. LICENCES AND COMPLIANCE

The Master Tenant shall obtain and keep any licence, registration or permit required to operate the Property for short-stay or other letting, and shall comply with the laws that apply to its operation. The Landlord shall cooperate and supply information reasonably needed for that purpose.

12. INSURANCE

The Master Tenant shall keep public liability insurance for its operation of the Property for the Term and shall provide evidence on request. The Landlord shall insure the building and its fixtures against fire, hurricane and other usual risks.

13. REPORTING AND ACCOUNTS

The Master Tenant shall provide monthly reporting and shall keep reasonable records of its operation of the Property. The Landlord may view bookings, income, maintenance and activity through the landlord dashboard at any time.

14. SALE OR MORTGAGE OF THE PROPERTY

The Landlord may sell or mortgage the Property during the Term only on terms that this Agreement continues to bind the buyer or lender. The Landlord shall tell the Master Tenant in writing before any sale and shall ensure the buyer takes the Property subject to this Agreement.

15. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The Master Tenant shall not be liable for loss, damage, delay or interruption arising from guest misconduct beyond the limits in clause 5, theft or criminal acts by third parties, acts of God including hurricanes, earthquakes and floods, utility or internet outages, government action or regulatory change, or any other event beyond its reasonable control.

16. CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-CIRCUMVENTION

Both parties shall keep confidential all business, operational and financial information obtained through this Agreement, except as required by law. During the Term and for twelve (12) months afterwards, the Landlord shall not directly or indirectly engage any contractor, cleaner, supplier, guest or service provider introduced by or affiliated with NOVOURQ, other than through the Master Tenant, without its written consent.

17. TERMINATION

(a) After the end of the Term, either party may end this Agreement by giving not less than _____ days' written notice to the other.

(b) Either party may end this Agreement during the Term by written notice if the other commits a material breach (including non-payment of rent for more than thirty (30) days) and does not put it right within thirty (30) days of written notice to do so.

(c) Any sum due remains payable after termination. At the end of the Term the Master Tenant shall return the Property in the condition it was in at the start, subject to fair wear and tear and to clause 5, remove its furnishings and hand back the keys and access.

(d) Guests and occupiers with confirmed bookings at the end of the Term shall be allowed to complete their stay or be relocated by the Master Tenant.

18. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither party is liable for delay or failure to perform caused by events beyond its reasonable control, including hurricanes, floods, earthquakes, epidemics, war, government action or interruptions to public services. If such an event stops use of the Property, the parties shall agree a fair adjustment of rent for the period affected.

19. NOTICES

Notices must be in writing and sent to the address or email of the other party in this Agreement or Schedule A. Email notices are treated as received on the next working day.

20. DATA PROTECTION

Each party shall handle personal information in accordance with the data-protection laws that apply to it.

21. DISPUTES AND GOVERNING LAW

The parties shall first try to resolve any dispute in good faith by discussion. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Jamaica and, where applicable, the laws of England and Wales.

22. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement and its Schedules are the entire agreement between the parties and replace all earlier discussions and agreements. Any change must be in writing and signed by both parties. If any provision is found unenforceable, the rest remains in force. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts.
